Newsletter 6 - Week ending - Friday 10th December 2021

Dear Parents/guardians,

Tuesday 4th January will be an INSET Day therefore all pupils will return on Wednesday 5th January after the Christmas holidays.

Christmas Concerts

We are sorry that we were unable to invite you all into school for our annual Christmas events and concerts! As an alternative each class will be performing an item and this will be filmed for you to view.

Your child's Christmas item will be available to view on our school website on Friday 17th December. On this date, you will need to click your child's class from the homepage or from the drop down menu. The video will be password protected in accordance to GDPR. We will send you a password to access your child's class video by text message or email. Many of you have already queried whether this video is available for download, but due to sharing restrictions you will only be able to stream it on our website.
